MOVIE TIME?

9/09/09 from HATONN/jonur

Good day, Jonur. Gyeorgos present in the light of Aton (God). I wish this document to be a brief announcement for an OPEN CASTING CALL for a scene in a motion picture.

MOTION PICTURE CASTING CALL

This is a notice for ones wishing to participate in a scene in a motion picture that is under development. The period is Present Day, and the dress is Outdoor "Festive" Attire. The season is Mid-Summer over the duration of a weekend.

ONLOOKERS AND "DIGNITARIES"

There is room for several hundred or more CASUAL AND FESTIVE ONLOOKERS; these would portray "out of state visitors" and the few local inhabitants of a tiny American town.

The theme is "Native American", with various samplings of dress and presentation with and among the throng of visitors. Family outings, cozy couples, and people looking to "get away from it all" would fill the largest portion of the casting requirement.

"Look-a-likes" of "Famous and Influential Persons" are now being sought. If you have been told that you are "a dead ringer" (I believe your saying goes) for a famous man or woman in Politics, Show Business, Industry, Economics, the Military, Science, Religion, Education, Law—or any field that allows such notoriety as to bring instant recognition by the masses—you are welcome to submit a photo for consideration.

ALSO, THIS CASTING CALL IS EXPLICITLY GOING OUT TO REAL LIFE "FAMOUS AND INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE". PARTICIPANTS WILL BE FLOWN IN BY PRIVATE JET TO THE SMALL CITY AIRPORT AND SHUTTLED TO A COMFORTABLE HOTEL(S) THAT OFFERS PRIVACY AND ANONYMITY TO THE HONORED GUESTS. After the completion of the film sequences, of course, like transportation will be provided back to points of origin.

GRANDSTAND AND PODIUM

The "Scene" that is the major sequence is a "Grandstand and Bleachers" set construction, located out of doors. It is cordoned off, for security and respect purposes (as you would have at a "red carpet" affair for the "Oscars" and such), and will seat the famous faces and their aides or spouses.

To the side of the Bleacher Seats will be open ground for Onlookers and Visitors already spoken of. The atmosphere is such that folding chairs and blankets and standing about is most enjoyable. Perhaps like watching one of your American Pastimes—an Air Show.

In front of the "Audience" will be a stage for speaking that will hold several speakers. Off to the side of the speaking stage will be a nice mock-up of a beautiful, gleaming, silver Disc-shaped Craft—"Flying Saucer", as YOU ones refer to it.

AUGUST 2010

Make travel arrangements for August 2010, the middle of the month. The specific dates are the weekend right around August 16th, 17th and 18th. Allow an extra day before and after for weather and travel arrangements.

Motel and Travel Lodges are available, as are Mobile Home Camp Sites; however, there is not much room for great accommodations for overnight guests. But not to worry as there are hotels and other lodgings in nearby towns. More information will be forthcoming, so please, feel free to spread the word and contact those who may wish to participate in a different kind of "Vacation" next year. Also, if you personally know of a famous person, send him or her a copy of this document or copies of the CONTACT Newspaper.

Jonur, break here, please. Hatonn to clear frequency; thank you for your service. Salu.

10/19/09 from HATONN/jonur

Good evening, Hatonn present in the light of our Father and in whose service I have come. Let us continue.

THE VISION MUST MATCH WHAT IS IN YOUR HEAD

All that you have been taught throughout the ages must now begin to match what you envision. For example, Satan does not look like the Mendez goat with red, pointed tail. Have you forgotten that the fallen one was also created in the image of The Father? And, being the first creation of God, might not Lucifer (who will BECOME Satan in those last hours!) also be beautiful? “The Bearer of Light” is what “Lucifer” means, dear ones. Are not the Khazar film stars very beautiful? How else can you be deceived if not by the pretty “lure”? There are stories throughout your planet’s history of men losing everything—including their lives—because of a beautiful temptress. Nothing has changed, chelas.

Arthur Koestler (a Jewish man who spilled the beans, as it were, on the contemporary Thirteenth Tribe scandal of Khazar Jews hiding among the true Hebrew “Jews”—he and his wife were murdered because of this information) chronicles an Arab geographer, Istakhri, who said: “The Khazars do not resemble the Turks. They are black-haired, and are of two kinds, one called the Kara-Khazars [Black Khazars], who are swarthy verging on deep black as if they were a kind of Indian, and a white kind [Ak-Khazars], who are strikingly handsome.” I emphasized this to point out the misleading way pre-conceived notions are dangerous. You do not know the “face of evil”; it can be gross and ugly, OR it can be “strikingly handsome”. Therefore, know the actions of a man to know the man.

WHAT DO YOU ENVISION COMING DOWN OUT OF THE SKY?

The same concept applies to what you envision coming down out of the heavens. What do you expect to see? And is it going to be from God, or from someone else? This is the dilemma we of God’s Hosts face this day: How to show you the difference without getting you blown off the map by the Bolsheviks (Khazars who secretly control U.S. and British Military High Commands—and they have their finger on “the button”, my friends—remember the Moon bombing mission?!!) when God shows up!

Your media has programmed you to expect Martians and lizard people and cattle mutilators—who suddenly acquired a taste for human blood. But if you will recall, it was the ancient Khazars who were known as “eaters of blood” and whatnot. And today, who is it that uses murdered Christian children’s blood (Jewish Blood Libel) for their rituals? So, who might the real blood-sucking aliens in thy midst be???

“A GATHERING OF FRIENDS” WILL FOREVER CHANGE THAT IMAGE

The visual imagery of the motion picture “A Gathering Of Friends” (this is the temporary working title, in that we maintain a bit of privacy during production) will forever change the image the Khazar Jew has worked hard to instill in the minds of the Christian masses. Remember, it is the followers of Christ who are their sworn enemies. You have everything that the greedy Jew of Khazar lineage wants. And your Godly REPUBLIC is at the top of the list!

The American people must visualize EN MASSE the space connection for that which it truly is, and not as foisted off upon you by the “Hollywood Jew”.

Jonur, have a short break here, please, and return promptly. Thank you for your continuing service. Hatonn to clear. Salu.

10/21/09 from HATONN/jonur

Good afternoon. Hatonn present in the light of The Creator SOURCE.

Allow us to continue with Visual Presentations of God, His Hosts, and E.T.s since the grand deception will involve false beings from space, come to do you in.

NO ENEMIES COMING FROM OUTER SPACE

The “invading aliens” already landed on Earth/Shan a long, long time in your past. As a matter of fact, they came WITH your own placement on this Blue-Emerald Paradise. Then you let the “Serpent People” (“Khazars”, as they were known in that day) take control.

All humanoid forms on a given planet, such as “Earth”—which is simply a generic term meaning: “Mansion” or “habitable planet”—come from a race of beings from some other star/sun system out in space. You ones on God’s team mainly come from The Seven Sisters or Pleiades direction and location of suns, for example. The extraterrestrial beings related to the Khazars, or Serpent Tribes, are from another area of your sky.

At this writing, I will not go into where they come from. We have covered this many times in the past and I do not want to waste time. The focus must be to get rid of the fear of space itself. Just know that any being with the capability to travel to the Earth is either observing, waiting within their capacity to help in an emergency—or, LOCKED ON EARTH WITH YOU, AND NO LONGER ALLOWED BACK IN OUTER SPACE. That is the punishment of Lucifer and the fallen ones: They are no longer welcomed back into “heaven”, remember?? “Heaven” means “the sky”, in King James’ Court (you know King “Jimmy”, don’t you, the one who changed your Holy Bible?), so that is when the Dark Brotherhood turned you against the Hosts come from “afar”.

THIS MOTION PICTURE SHOWS MAN JUST WHO IS OUT THERE

Coming out of “the sky”, means coming from “the heavens”; this is the place Lucifer was cast “down” to. The “cosmos” is where the “heavenly realms” are located, if you will. However, God is located WITHIN, as well. (“Centering all things; and outside of all things, Controlling them.”)

Your adversary is the adversary to Christ-ness; that means, your ability to reconnect with The Star

People. So they are going to try to fool you with some pretty impressive phony space ships! Oh, they can fly around and blow things up; however, they cannot go out of your little neighborhood of planets. If the Earth goes, they perish along with everyone else. And your remaining planets are about used up. You cannot survive as a species playing the games you are playing. Wars lead to the destruction of the planet—EVERY TIME!

THE CALL GOES OUT: “THE ELECT” STAND WITNESS

The “very elect” are to be deceived, do you recall? It must be the task of all who comprehend and understand THE WORD to inform the representatives of You-The-People! Since the famous faces seem to get your attention, in one way or another, then recruit your elect to do that which they are charged to do—HELP THE PEOPLE!

The masses of the planet will fall to the Khazarian Jews of Lucifer’s evil band if those with political influence do not take a stand WITH the people. All you need to do is stand in representation. Just as with G-8s/G-20 Summit Meetings, where you are seen posing for pictures and shaking hands or waving, your mere presence sends a message of focus on the problem.

BRAD PITT

This open call goes out to Brad Pitt; he would lend this motion picture project much in the form of his earnest youthfulness to get to the truth, a quality that comes from his films—“Spy Game” is one such film. His co-star Robert Redford was at one time considered for the role in “A Gathering Of Friends”. However, a project like this is going to have every manner of delays tossed its way. As with all things of God’s Planning, when the timing is correct, the pieces come into integration.

OPRAH WINFREY CAN BRING THE OBAMAS

Do not underestimate the use of humor in our task at hand. We are endeavoring to open the eyes of a planet full of humans who have been told, essentially, “the world is flat” all these centuries, and now, you come along saying it’s round!

Oprah has a good, solid base of America—ACROSS THE SPECTRUM—who know she is searching for truth and is willing to share with the world.

MRS. OBAMA SHOULD INVITE HER NEW FRIEND—MRS. SARKOZY

All avenues must be taken to ENSURE representatives of your planet’s people GET THE CALL! The French have a very detailed agenda to bring the knowledge and presence of UFOs to the public. Behind the scenes, Presidents Obama and Sarkozy have a major, major part to play in bringing The Space Connection (perhaps a goodly reference to the Gene Hackman film, “The French Connection”!) out into the open.

GERMAN CHANCELORE REVISITS HER NATION’S UFO HERITAGE

The presence of Germany’s Leading Lady provides a symbolic connection to the past, with Germany already having “flying saucers” in 1940. The German people, as a whole, being acutely technically minded, will appreciate representation of their own nation in such as “A Gathering Of Friends”.

In addition, the background collaboration between the various governments, will help to integrate the knowledge of the technical corporations (WHO MANUFACTURE UFO PARTS AND CRAFT—though not as advanced as are we of the cosmic HOSTS!) with general abilities of TODAY’S manufacturing capabilities. You have to know that your government(s) can make spaceships in the first place, and has been doing so for quite a while now.

“NATIONAL AIRBORNE DAY”
COINCIDES WITH AUGUST TIMING!

The National Day for the United States Airborne Paratroopers is August 16th. At Midnight on that day in 1987 was when all the ancient calendars ended, and thus, our method of keeping track of your earth cycle changes to prepare for. Your elite Airborne Soldiers are the “Guard of Honor” of your nation, whose creed is: “Second To None”. Therefore, it is only fitting that National Airborne Day hold 2010’s annual convention during the three-day “A Gathering Of Friends” shoot. Plenty of space next to the V.I.P. bleachers, and a magnificent and symbolic gesture of “ALL AMERICAN” 82ND AIRBORNE SUPPORT FOR THE ELECT. U.S. Paratroopers are known also as those bearing “wings”, a fitting “guard” in preparation of God’s HOSTS, who also come on “Silver Wings”!

CONGRESSMAN JAMES E. CLYBURN:
FAMILY REUNION—RESCHEDULED

The Honorable James E. Clyburn, Majority Whip, U.S. Congress, said he would do everything in his power to see to it that former Senator Barack Obama became President of your world’s first, fully functioning REPUBLIC OF THE PEOPLE. Now having your nation’s highest ranking Congressman amid the world dignitaries sends the message loud and clear, that it will be the citizens who demand a return to TRUTH and accountability.

“Jim” Clyburn, of South Carolina, planned to attend The Clyburn Family World Reunion there a few years back; however, the “9/11” Demolition (by both explosive charges WITHIN THE BUILDING SUPER-STRUCTURES, as well as “cover” blasts by remotely-guided aircraft) cancelled the event.

Please, as always, you readers holding these INSTRUCTIONS, get them to all the participants for this project. Utilize as many ways as you can come up with to get our cast to this most important SCENE. AUGUST 2010, a few days surrounding the 16th, 17th and 18th, in California, U.S.A.

NOW IT IS PUTIN’S TURN TO AGREE TO MEET OBAMA

August 16, 17, 18, on the set, in the Dignitaries scene. What of the true capabilities of the Super Powers! A friendly handshake and a smile of true friendship would be enough. Just as Mr. Putin’s Czar Nicolas of the Kremlin in the glory years, and the other Russian “Czars” (Russian for “Caesar”) who helped protect the struggling, young America the Beautiful from British Imperialism; today, the new struggle is with UFOs!

They are real and this is the capability, will be the unspoken theme of the “movers-and-shakers”, as YOU ONES recognize them to be. After all, Russia, the U.S. and China certainly know WE ARE REAL—they communicate regularly and even met members of My Command!

THIRTEEN BALD EAGLES
FLY BY OVERHEAD!

A dear Native American friend, Gene J., saw a spectacular sight a couple of days ago. Thirteen (13) Bald Eagles flew past him overhead in an area of Detroit, Michigan. On the day of the majestic fly-by, the scribe had just spoken to his sister about “Gatherings” and “Gatherings of Eagles” and other references fondly spoken of during the wonderful days when Doris/Dharma received for Myself and The HOSTS. The day the working title, “A Gathering Of Friends”, was noted in that day’s writings—a call from Gene to our scribe’s sister described the gathering of eagles while the topic was being penned!!

My, my, you Bird People do forget sometimes. Every now and then, we remind you from whence you came, and continue to come. Hence, this visual presentation to be filmed outlaying THE FACTS and putting the lies in the trash where they belong.

You have suffered long enough in ignorance; it is time to know the who’s and why’s of it all. Each of you receiving these words is a Production Assistant on “A Gathering Of Friends”, if you wish to participate. Do whatever it is that you can do to do your task in bringing the truth about UFOs, aliens, Angels, your Holy Bible—AND GOD—to the motion picture screen.

And we of God’s Hosts will stand with you every step of the way. A nice pretend craft and a few “special effects” can go an extremely long way! Hatonn to clear frequency, please. Thank you, Jonur. Salu!

10/22/09 from HATONN/jonur

Good afternoon, Jonur. As the workload increases, so also will the energy bombardment. In a moment we will speak on world events and on our business in the Philippines and elsewhere, and respond to correspondence. Being isolated from distractions is the best security for receivers/scribes. It is best in that our protection can be more focused on the individual in point. Your adversary is constantly looking for an opening in the shield to get at this scribe. Separation from others also protects them from stray “shots” (be they bullets, pulses or negative energy waves!); allow the isolation, please.

FIRST DAY OF SHOOTING:
“A GATHERING OF FRIENDS”

August 2010 will be when the first scenes are filmed for our visual presentation, “A Gathering Of Friends” (temporary working title). This will begin about 18 months of pre-production and production work on the first of five motion pictures being made at the Studio Complex. The way these films will be shot, and the unique DOME layout, mean that several projects will be in production at the same time. In addition, the special, advanced equipment and cameras will allow breathtaking scenes to be collected from across your nation and around the globe—WHICH CAN BE PERFECTLY MATCHED TO STATIC (STILL) SETS AND SET PIECES BACK IN THE DOMED STUDIO. A GIANT TURNTABLE-TYPE STAGE, WITH SEPARATE SETS ON THREE OR FOUR DIVIDED FACADES, ALLOWS FOR MULTIPLE PROJECTS TO BE PRODUCED AT THE SAME TIME.

IT IS IMPORTANT FOR YOU ONES TO REALIZE THAT—IN THESE FLEETING DAYS AND MONTHS—IT WILL BE A NEW MEDIA OUTGROWTH, BIRTH OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, THAT WILL AWAKEN THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD TO THEIR COMING PLIGHT. THE ZIONIST JEW OWNS HOLLYWOOD, AND THEY HAVE BEEN USING THIS MOST IMPORTANT TOOL OF EDUCATION FOR MASS MIND MANIPULATION ON A PLANETARY SCALE! THIS IS WHERE GOD’S PEOPLE WILL MAKE THE LAST STAND, FOR IF THE ENTIRE POPULATION DOES NOT GET IT, THEN YOU ARE LOST. This is a war of ideals, chelas—Godly ones and those of Lucifer. Motion pictures bridge the gap between all cultures, and with subtitles and/or language “dubbing”, a world can be shown THE LIGHT.

[EJ: Please pay attention! This is the joy of participation and there is something here for ALL.]

HOLLYWOOD IS DEAD!
LET IT BE BURIED

The poison spread by the Hollywood Jew of Khazarian lineage has brought the species of man to the very edge of self extinction! The slow and insidious killing of your races by negative (evil) programming throughout the decades can only be halted by GIVING THE PEOPLE SOMETHING BETTER TO WATCH. Lucifer rules through his effect on your minds—THROUGH THE JEWISH MEDIA. MOTION PICTURES NOW LEAD THE ASSAULT! With the “death of newspapers” and reading of books, you are presently at the mercy of the evil magicians behind the silver screen.

Vampires, big and grand robberies—SEX AND MURDER... do I need to go on?!! Lucifer and his Zionist Jews program the production schedule, my friends; that is why the people have nothing but trash to look at. Man must come into realization that this is not a natural occurrence; the filth and killings and mindless comedy??? is by design.

IT IS OUT NOW: JEWISH MUSIC
PRODUCERS RAPE AND MOLEST
THE CHILDREN!

Roman Polanski (whose wife, Sharon Tate, was killed by Satanic cult followers of Charles Manson) was not the first Hollywood Jew who raped children. He was not the exception—BUT THE NORM! Harrison Ford went to Europe, where Polanski was living in exile, if you will, from U.S. authorities, and Ford presented him with an Oscar award. The so-called “Gay Mafia” is not just a few homosexuals (in or out of the closet) making movies and handing out recording contracts to those willing to sign their souls away.

The slave trade of today, that produces young girls (and boys) for international prostitution and every manner of debasement against the human being, is headquartered with this Gay Mafia. The big secret is kept because—well, who heads the media? That means NETWORK NEWS AND CABLE “CNN”-type news. They are owned by the motion picture companies, and they are not going to do an expose on themselves, are they?!

And if the raped and molested children dare speak of the terrible things done to them, guess what? They are “Black Listed” from ever working “in this town again!” Being that “Tinsel Town” (Hollywood) is the only game in town, their dreams of stardom are over. So the secret remains intact. However, so many of the Black children are speaking out that the lid is finally blown off WHAT IS REALLY REQUIRED TO “MAKE IT”.

THE PEOPLE NEED SOMETHING OF GOD AND TRUTH TO LOOK AT

When a person is given a choice between something of evil and a representation of God, he will chose The LIGHT. [EJ: Especially in this, God’s Millennium.]

The soul of humanity is looking for that from which it was birthed. God’s children are—looking for God. No more, and no less! The Zionist enemy confuses that search, and has stopped at nothing to replace the things which are God’s with the trinkets and false promises of Lucifer.

This is what we are about in our work at this hour. At present, no one, except Mel Gibson, dared go against the Jews in such a straightforward manner. However, the ferocious, organized attack against this man SHOWS HOW DANGEROUS MOVIES ARE WHEN USED BACK AT THEM! The illusion of the Zionist Khazar Jews of Hollywood will instantly evaporate with the coming of Aton’s Motion Picture Studio. For the Light always vanquishes darkness—especially in PRESENTATION. Held up side by side—the vile pictures and music of the Satanic forces versus the inspired images and song of God—the choice becomes simple indeed!

Jonur, break here, please. Hatonn, moving to standby. Salu!

10/23/09 from HATONN/jonur

Hatonn in the service of the Christos, Aton, and His creation—you. Amen and Salu!

THAT “OTHER” PLANET
OUT THERE

You were told 6 Thousand Years ago that your Earth had one more planet out there—also orbiting around your sun/star. The Sumerian Texts which were found in Iraq (for our new readers, and the “why” of attacking Baghdad in the first place) explain all these coming cyclic changes. For those who are not prepared, it will be the so called “Hell on earth” long described to you in prophecy. Once the masses have a visual picture in their mind of “A BETTER WAY”, The HOSTS of Heaven will be welcomed once again. Man merely has forgotten his Cosmic Heritage. This motion picture will remind you.

DURING THE CONFUSION:
“I’LL TAKE THE WORLD TOO!”

When these cycle changes come, there will be a lot of confusion; this is when the Dark Brotherhood plans an all-out grab for World Control.

This is why it is so necessary for you ones to know what to expect IN ALL CASES. The deception will occur on many levels—this elite bunch has lots of back-up plans for their back-up plans.

In any event, the single purpose will always be—“ALIENS FROM SPACE” DID THIS TO YOU!

“ALIENS” TO BE BLAMED
FOR VACCINE DEATHS

When millions of Canadians just drop dead from the mass inoculation program being rushed to the people—aliens from space will get the blame! As a matter of fact, all the disasters (man-made using secret technology, or natural) will be blamed on unscrupulous extraterrestrial creatures after your blood.

PANIC-CONTROL IS WHAT THE JEW IS LOOKING FOR

The more they can frighten the masses about “SPACE”, the easier it will be for the Jew to manage the panic into a specific direction. And then, like herding cattle or sheep, humans can be controlled like animals. Fear is the “glue” that sticks you together, herd-like, into clumps. You are playing follow the leader, and the leader is Satan! Blind people (figuratively or for real—for TO BLIND THE MASSES WITH AN ALL-ENCOMPASSING “LIGHT” IS STILL AMONG THE PLANNING!) cannot lead each other, precious ones; this is why God sent The Hosts, to give you VISION.

THE MORE VISUAL PRESENTATIONS,
THE MORE HUMANITY WILL SEE

Humanity has been bombarded by false images (IDOLS) for a long time. The lies must be put to rest in the grave where they belong. Only truth—ON DISPLAY FOR THE WORLD TO SEE—will save the masses. Only the joining of God’s people to enlighten his brothers and sisters of all races will thwart the Jewish Plan for World Domination.

Their “Global Plan 2000” is on record as calling for a mass depopulation initiative—RIGHT NOW. So what happens IF the vaccine develops a sudden “side effect” that wipes out all the vaccinated citizens? Does this not fit with the rush to get you all injected—whether or not the serum has been tested?

Let us hope many ones call on God’s help BEFORE zero hour. Jonur, have a short respite, please. Hatonn to stand by. Salu.

10/24/09 from ATON/Jonur

I AM ATON, THY STRENGTH

I see thee in sadness and I know thy plight with efforting to send forth The WORD. Do not weep at those who do not see that which my Sons and Angels bring. The sorting has begun.

The transition of a planet and the people who dwell upon her is as a woman in the throes of childbirth.

Sometimes there is pain; thy reward comes afterwards.

Man knows not how hard the journey is while he is in the midst of the tribulation. Enemies of God and man know what thy weak areas are. These are the places to protect at all times. Only those closest to you can cause harm, for known enemies are kept at bay. It is always the spy or deceiver in thy midst who does the most damage. Mine creations have not yet learned to separate those who would do you harm from the most loyal brother who lays life and limb on the line.

Where are the true brothers of wisdom? How can one tell who is here to help or to destroy? Only thy connection to Me is pure. When you of my most beloved creations take my hand in sincere truth of finding God, then, there I AM. You cannot navigate the wilderness of Creation without a guide who knows the pitfalls and the location of the venomous vipers (snakes) lurking near the trail.

The Great Purpose of the journey is to come again within MY ONENESS. The desire to find “home” is birthed in man as his universal homing compass—it is encoded in your DNA.

Allow the focus of human existence to be of my presence and guidance. How else can ye expect to accomplish greatness?

My ones are a varied lot. The desires and actions of man are multiple and with varied consequences. Only by learning and knowing my Laws can a goal be established. Where do ye ones want to end up, after all? Now is the time to consider these questions. Not after the play is over. It is when you are the actor on the stage of The Creation that new directions can be explored. Your birthright upon the physical plane IS YOUR PASSPORT TO CHANGE THIS WORLD! Only those with the grace of human conception and emergence from the birth canal have the right to tamper with this play of plays.

The hour draws near, however, when I shall stand among you. I advise all who would wish to come home to make up thy minds as to which Master ye serve.

Let no one take you away from thy appointed task! For it will be no one else to judge action (or lack thereof), but Me. The distracter may have only been sent to see to it that YOU learn YOUR lesson. So judge not another, for you do not know his/her contract with “his” God!

I AM

Jonur, have respite and center thy being within, upon Mine Holy, Divine LIGHT. My Hosts await your summoning; be at peace.

Look Up!

[EJ: Kevin from Louisiana has resurrected a selection of the Dr. Peter Beter material which seems to me extremely guided and timely. At the time we learned of Dr. Beter in about 1990 his tapes had been published and Doris retyped every page for us. The comments made by Commander Hatonn at the time indicated that He had assisted Dr. Beter every step of the way. I think Dr. Beter finished his contract in 1984 and I feel sure we are greatly indebted to him for his long, dedicated, and extremely dangerous service.]

INTERESTING MATERIAL ON RUSSIAN COSMOSPHERES

<http://www.peterdavidbeter.com/>

Dr. Peter Beter Audio Newsletter #29 December 22, 1977 Excerpt

(Quoting:) The ability of their (Russian) lunar-based charged Particle Beams to blast an earth target with devastating force has been confirmed; and by carrying out their test in the midst of a violent cyclone, they succeeded in camouflaging the man-made disaster by combining it with a natural one. Both the lunar and earth orbital Particle Beam weapons of the Soviet Union must now be regarded as fully operational and tested. But the lunar Particle Beam test was scarcely completed before tests began with yet another secret Soviet weapon!

Last month I reminded you of the lightning pace of weapons advancement that was still publicly visible up until the early 1960's; but at the secret level, military technology was advancing even faster. As early as 1962, top military officers were seriously worried about a future threat to America that was then already visible on the technical horizon. This threatened future development consisted of space platforms capable of levitating in stationary positions over our major cities or other strategic locations. These platforms would not be in orbit like normal earth satellites; instead, they would actually hover for long periods of time over a single spot. This cannot be done with orbiting satellites except for those stationed over the earth's equator about 22,000 miles out in space. So the United States already had the capability long ago to build these hovering platforms if desired, manning them with forty-man crews who would remain aboard for two months at a time. Therefore it was obvious that some day the Soviet Union would also develop this capability, and our military leaders wanted to be in a position to interdict any Soviet platforms that might some day invade the space over our country. But their urgent pleas for authority and funds to develop a defense against the expected threat of floating platforms were rudely turned aside—they didn't fit in with the two-pronged program for world military domination that I explained for you last month. On the surface, America was to be gradually stripped of its known weaponry; while in total secrecy, the moon program was to provide America's secret rulers with the unadmitted ability to destroy the Soviet Union in a final double-cross.

Now it's 15 years later, the grand design of our secret rulers lies in ruins—shattered less than three months ago by Russia's upset victory in the Battle of the Harvest Moon on September 27. The men and women of America's secret moon colony in Copernicus Crater lie entombed where they died, bombarded by a Soviet neutron Particle Beam weapon orbiting the earth—and now, the Soviet Union controls the moon and from it the earth. Furthermore, spurred on by the danger of losing the decisive Particle Beam race, the Kremlin has spent fantastic amounts of money to develop a bewildering array of military weapons of every type. Wherever possible they have borrowed and exploited whole technologies developed in the West at our cost. They have bought critical hardware to fill gaps in their own technology, paying for it with United States financed loans guaranteed by American taxpayers. They have contracted for western multi-national corporations to build whole manufacturing facilities in Russia—factories that are unparalleled here at home; and, relieved of the need to develop so many things for themselves, they have been able to concentrate on advanced projects that leapfrog ahead of our own technology in certain areas. And one of these areas is the hovering space platform, which certain of our military leaders were worried about 15 years ago.

For many years the Soviet Union has led the world in the field of high-energy physics and in many areas of advanced mathematics as well. This enabled them to win the race for the Particle Beam weapon, and has also enabled them to develop a hovering space platform design that operates on more advanced principles than those our military anticipated 15 years ago.

The Soviet hovering-platform concept is built around a branch of physics most people have never even heard of called Electrogravitics. At the present time the Soviet Union is using electrogravitic vehicles both on the moon and in space close to earth. Theoretically these vehicles will some day be able to travel directly between earth and the moon and even over inter-planetary distances, but the transition from the gravitational field of the earth to that of the moon, among other things, is potentially hazardous so this is not being done yet. Instead, rockets are being used by Soviet cosmonauts to travel between the earth and the moon, but the electrogravitic levitation is being used on the moon itself. The electrogravitic vehicles developed so far by the Soviet Union are still very crude—they can lift themselves vertically up or down, using their levitation field they produce, but have to use small rocket motors to move sideways; but crude or not, the Soviet Union now has these hovering space platforms and we do not; nor do we have any means of combating them, since our secret masters have refused ever since 1962 to allow any means of defense to be developed.

I can now reveal that the Kremlin has begun deploying hovering space platforms over the United States, and elsewhere, armed with Particle Beam weapons. AT THIS MOMENT SEVEN (7) SOVIET HOVERING SPACE PLATFORMS ARE ALREADY ON STATION OVER NORTH AMERICA AND THE WATERS NEARBY!

Platform No. 1 is hovering 672 miles above a spot in the Atlantic Ocean about 170 miles east of Charleston, South Carolina. No. 2 is 821 miles above a spot in the Pacific 256 miles southwest of Los Angeles, California. No. 3 is floating 784 miles above a spot about 42 miles west of the so-called Four Corners of Utah, Colorado, Arizona, and New Mexico. No. 4 is 821 miles directly above the intersection of the borders of Idaho, Montana, and Canada. No. 5 is hovering 597 miles above a spot that is about 50 miles east-northeast of Denver, Colorado. No. 6 is 560 miles above Illinois over a spot about 80 miles southwest of Chicago and 50 miles east of Peoria. No. 7 is at the same altitude, 560 miles, over a spot about 10 miles northwest of Morgantown, West Virginia, at the border of southwest Pennsylvania.

The first four platforms are manned, the other three, launched more recently, are still being checked out by remote control prior to being manned by crews who will be carried there by electrogravitic shuttle.

Early this month on December 2, 1977, the crew of Soviet Platform No. 1 received the orders they had been waiting for from Moscow. They were to commence de-focused beam tests. A de-focused beam expands out over a broader and broader area as it flashes through space; and as a result, when the broad beam strikes the atmosphere, most of the energy is spent in the air itself. (This is the exact opposite of the situation on November 19 when the lunar Particle Beams created tight shafts of energy that passed through the Indian cyclone to strike the sea with great power.) The crew adjusted their Particle Beam weapon to de-focus the beam to a prescribed amount, then at approximately 10:00 A.M. they aimed their weapon at a spot in the sea about 50 miles off the South Carolina coast and fired. The air itself over the ocean east of South Carolina was made to explode with the force of a hundred tons of TNT. Along the South Carolina coast thousands of people heard the tremendous rumble from the blast at sea, dishes rattled, and some windows broke. At the Lamont-Doherty Geological Laboratory north of New York City, acoustic monitoring instruments jumped off scale. Everyone who heard it wondered what had happened. About 3:45 that afternoon the crew of Platform No. 1 were ready for a second test shot. The target area this time was the sea off the New Jersey coast—650 miles to the north-northeast of Platform No. 1. The Particle Beam weapon had been re-adjusted to compensate for the greater distance involved, and then it was fired. At points along the coast from Cape May, New Jersey, to Connecticut, thousands heard the powerful blast as more dishes rattled and more windows broke. Again acoustic monitors were driven off scale. On December 15, Platform No. 1 began firing again. At least five blasts were fired into the air over the Atlantic that day. On December 20, just two days ago, still more blasts took place; but the major news media had begun to treat the whole matter as if it were a joke. Most Americans do not live on the east coast, of course, and have not heard these explosions for themselves. But listen to these words that a housewife in Manhattan used to describe one of the explosions to me: "It was a bright sunny day and my older kids were in school. I was at home when suddenly there was a tremendous, tremendous boom. It sounded like it could have been next door, or it could have been a million miles away—you just couldn't tell. It was a low, thundering, deep, all-encompassing noise. It sounded like a bomb, but I thought it might be an earthquake. I grabbed the kids, my younger kids who were at home, and ran to the wall. I glanced at the clock and it was just after 1:00 o'clock. I waited to see what else would happen, but nothing did. I turned on the radio to find out what had happened, but there was nothing on the radio, nothing about what had happened. The kids in school were all scared. The teacher said: 'It's Con-Edison.' But of course if it had been Con-Edison, the whole neighborhood would have blown up. It just sounded as if something had hit the bottom of the earth."

Soviet acts of intimidation are becoming more frequent and more vicious. Only last night around 7:00 P.M. another series of so-called mystery explosions were heard off the east coast, and only today two grain elevators—one in Louisiana, the other in Mississippi—exploded within hours of one another. The first explosion took place this morning, December 22, at the huge Continental Grain Company elevator on the west bank of the Mississippi River, a few miles upstream from downtown New Orleans. Eyewitnesses said: "It went up like an H-bomb." The ground shook for several seconds as though in an earthquake, a huge mushroom cloud stretched perhaps a mile into the air, and debris from the structure kept falling like feathers into the river. The entire facility, storing $100,000,000 worth of grain, was ruined and there were scores injured, perhaps two dozen killed. The portion of the elevator nearest the river was completely blown off.

My friends, when I resumed recording my Audio letter last August with Issue No. 25, I warned that there were 158 Soviet nuclear mines—that is, small H-bombs—buried under water along the Mississippi River. The destruction of the grain elevator near New Orleans this morning resulted from the detonation of the first of these bombs, which was located in the River near the south end of the loading dock. Other Soviet nuclear mines are still waiting to be exploded within a few miles of that location. One is just across the river from the site of today's explosion in an area known as Carrolton Bend. Another is about a mile in the upstream direction from the ruined grain elevator under the southeast end of the Huey P. Long Bridge. Looking downstream, another Soviet nuclear mine is lurking in the water beneath the Greater New Orleans bridge. Further downstream there is one at the entrance to Chalmette Ship Wharf No. 2. There are two in the inner harbor navigation canal—one just north of the lock, and another about three-quarters of a mile north of that. And not only is the Mississippi River mined—for example, there is a nuclear mine in Lake Pontchartrain near the south end of the Pontchartrain causeway. It has now been four months since I revealed the situation in the Mississippi River. Since that time I have never been contacted by a single official having jurisdiction of any kind along the Mississippi River to find out more about the situation. No one has made the slightest effort to take action, and now many have lost their lives and many more are injured. About two hours later, the second grain elevator suddenly exploded in Tupelo, Mississippi. Like the first, it was destroyed by a Soviet nuclear mine; but Tupelo is not on a river, and the mine was buried in the ground nearby.

Having first sabotaged America's water resources, then important governmental and military sites, the Soviet agents are still criss-crossing our land unhampered and far advanced in sabotaging our food-warehousing facilities. Major grain elevators throughout the Midwest, the Great Plains, and other grain-producing areas, have been mined already like the one that exploded today at Tupelo, Mississippi.

Topic #2—Last May in AUDIO LETTER No. 24 I quoted at length from the warnings of General George Keegan, who retired at the beginning of this year as the Chief of Air Force Intelligence. Gen. Keegan is as great a patriot as he is an intelligence analyst, and it was he who first warned America that Russia was developing the awesome Particle Beam weapon. Earlier this month, on December 14, General Keegan was interviewed on the Bob Snyder radio show, Station WDCL in Clearwater, Florida. General Keegan described the bleak military picture we now confront in graphic terms. As his final question to General Keegan, Bob Snyder asked General Keegan: "You already said that the Russians could possibly capture Europe in 36 hours. If war broke out between the United States and Russia, I said 'if'—who would win?" General Keegan's answer was: "There is no question in my mind that the Soviet Union would win." (For more information about General Keegan's comments, I strongly suggest that you write to Mr. Snyder directly. He publishes a very timely and informative newsletter, and you can write to him at: The Bob Snyder Newsletter, Box 15, Safety Harbor, Florida, zip 33572)

For those who are willing to open their eyes and see, more and more bits of the truth are surfacing here and there that point to our true situation; but so far only one major newspaper, the CHICAGO TRIBUNE, has seen fit to do an in-depth job of alerting its readers to the possible magnitude of the silent war that is already going on. When I revealed the Soviet underwater missile crisis of 1976 during July and August of that year, I alerted you to the major emphasis that the Soviet Union now puts on its navy. And in a Sunday edition earlier this month, the CHICAGO TRIBUNE ran a series of articles in the special report section (Note: Section 2 "Perspective/Business") entitled "UNDERSEA WARFARE." Originally the articles were to have run over a period of days beginning on December 7, the anniversary of Pearl Harbor; but rather than run the risk of being pressured to halt the series after it began, the TRIBUNE had the courage to run them all at once on Sunday, December 4, 1977. I strongly recommend that you go to your library and read the CHICAGO TRIBUNE articles on "Undersea Warfare" in their entirety, and read them closely, my friends.

To give you some idea of what you will find, I'll now quote some passages from the various articles including both the special report section and the lead article, which appeared on page 1:

"The cold, dark war underseas is an expensive and essential element of allied military planning at all levels. Occasionally its muffled sounds have reached the ears of the public, but not often. The underseas war is rigged for silent running." "The reason the ASW (Anti Submarine Warfare) programs are cloaked in so much secrecy, officials said, is that defending the sea has become the weakest link in the chain of American preparation for both conventional and nuclear war." Two paragraphs later: "The high stakes involved have also produced a continuing mini-war on and below the high seas as ships, submarines, and planes of the United States and its allies fence with Soviet forces testing each other's systems. One arena for these so-far bloodless encounters is the North Atlantic, where the U.S. has positioned its most effective ASW forces and equipment." Later in the same article: "But it was learned that the system is far from completely effective. Frequently, U.S. hunters lose Soviet submarines after tracking them for a while. As a result, the U.S. command is confident it knows how many Soviet submarines are at sea, but little confidence about their whereabouts."

I might mention, my friends, that 2½ years ago, in May 1975, Admiral Gorshkoff, the head of the Soviet navy, declared that the Soviet Union has solved the problem of tracking and neutralizing our submarines. In September 1976 I revealed that a Soviet missile-planting mini-submarine had become trapped in Chesapeake Bay due to a mechanical malfunction. I urged that it be captured by the United States Navy and the incident used to expose to the whole world the Soviet preparations for surprise nuclear attack. But as I reported the following month in Audio Letter No. 17, President Gerald Ford knuckled under to Soviet demands in the Red Friday Agreement of October 1, 1976, and the Soviet Navy was allowed to enter Chesapeake Bay under cover of night to retrieve the mini-sub, whose crew had died by then. The very idea that a Soviet submarine could penetrate so deeply into American territorial waters, struck some of my listeners as incredible at the time; and the idea that we would let them get away with it, may have seemed even more far-fetched to those who do not understand what is really going on behind the scenes.

But listen now to quotations from the CHICAGO TRIBUNE page 1 lead story about undersea warfare by Jim Coates and Jack Fuller. The headline is: "U.S., Soviet Subs Prowling Dangerous Waters":

"United States spy submarines have been penetrating Soviet territorial waters for the last 30 months despite a widespread belief inside the government that the controversial maneuvers had stopped, sources have told the TRIBUNE." Two paragraphs later, after assigning "Holystone" as the code name for the program: "On one occasion before the 1975 disclosures, the TRIBUNE learned, a U.S. spy submarine was temporarily grounded beneath the busy port of Vladivostok. Holystone critics attempted to demonstrate the seriousness of the penetrations by speculating what American reaction would be if a Soviet submarine were discovered aground in San Diego Harbor. While few details were available about the Vladivostok incident, sources said it apparently occurred when the vessel was running on low power to avoid detection and struck the harbor bottom." Further on: "Intelligence insiders said that the Russians have known about the U.S. missions for years even when they were carried out under tight security. Because the Soviets have never publicly complained about the U.S. undersea forays, some analysts have suggested that a similar Russian probing of American sea space is under way.” And one more quotation: “Several former government officials agreed to shed light on the silent battles under the seas. Some said they were willing to speak in an effort to illustrate the dangers of the current situation.”

My friends, the undersea bombs and missiles I’ve told you about now for well over a year multiply these dangers many times over. So do their close relatives, the underwater mines that are now planted all around the United States as well as in other countries. But what makes them most deadly is the failure to take counteractive measures. It’s now been proven that undersea missiles and bombs as well as underwater nuclear mines planted near our dams can be located and removed, given the proper equipment and the will to use it. Last month I warned that the Kensico Reservoir, Tarrytown Reservoir, and Pocantico Lake north of New York City all contain Soviet nuclear mines, as did the Hudson River near the east end of the Tappan Zee Bridge. On December 7, I received an important call from an official of Westchester County. It was only the first call, but for once someone was taking the threat seriously. Within days, action was quietly being taken to find and remove the bombs in the three bodies of water, and by late last week I received word that all three had been successfully located and removed. Meanwhile, the so-called Federal Dam Inspection Program has suddenly shifted into high gear, providing a perfect opportunity for the Army Corps of Engineers to find and remove many more nuclear mines nationwide. So far I can only confirm that Westchester County, the home of the Rockefellers, has benefited from such quick action.

The end of all this secret jockeying is demonstrated by the current plight of the United States, and now Great Britain as well. Over a year ago the United States Navy was forced to cease and desist from removing each round of Soviet undersea missiles from our territorial waters as they were planted. Now over 200 short-range Soviet nuclear missiles infest our territorial waters, including over 50 in the Great Lakes. Great Britain held out for a full year longer than the United States, but she too has finally succumbed. For a year and more the Royal Navy kept locating and extracting Soviet undersea missiles from her own waters, but this fact, unfortunately, was never made public officially. America’s disastrous loss of the Space Battle of the Harvest Moon in late September rendered the situation untenable, and in early October British Foreign Minister David Owen went to Moscow to capitulate; and now as a result, the British Isles are surrounded by no fewer than 60 Soviet underwater missile—52 around England, Wales, and Scotland, and 8 around Ireland. As in August 1976, Great Britain is once again more densely targeted by Soviet undersea missiles than any other spot on earth; and Britain, the only other power to join the United States and the Soviet Union in the so-called SALT talks, is now joining the United States in the process of surrender through disarmament. The badly weakened NATO Alliance is now in the process of being neutralized and dismantled completely. For years the growing might of the Warsaw Pact nations has been tipping the military balance in Europe ever more heavily against NATO, but the process that is now splitting and destroying NATO is not the Warsaw Pact threat.

The coup de grace is being delivered by the controlled Carter administration. Obediently doing as it is told by the Soviet Union, the Carter administration is abandoning NATO, and the Europeans know it.

The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations

by Ken Adachi
June 4, 2004

The authoritative expose of the greatest brainwashing organization to ever exist in the course of human history is now revealed in Dr. John Coleman’s latest book, The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations: Shaping the Moral, Cultural, Political, and Economic Decline of the United States of America. The Tavistock Institute is located in the City of London and at Sussex University in England.

Dr. John Coleman, the author of 15 books, the best known of which is Conspirators Hierarchy, The Committee of 300 <<http://educate-yourself.org/cn/johncolemancommof300order14mar05.shtml>> was one of the first writers to bring the world’s attention to the existence of Tavistock, hitherto unknown to press and pundits alike, in a monograph published in 1969. Since his initial 1969 revelations concerning the pivotal role that Tavistock plays in shaping political, social, educational, and economic ‘opinions’, especially in the United States, more than a few writers of global conspiracy have attempted to place laurels upon their shoulders for revelations about Tavistock’s key influence as the Mother of all Propaganda Ministries, while ignoring the fact that this pioneering work was first published by John Coleman. Dr. Coleman’s new book, however, leaves no doubt as to who is the master and who are the students when it comes to the subject of Tavistock.

The book is stunning in the new knowledge that it reveals about the hidden role of British oligarchs to shape and control public opinion <<http://alcor.concordia.ca/~dwharton/txt/sgt/70.htm>> in order to manipulate the British public (and later the American public) into accepting the notion that war with Germany was necessary in order “to secure a lasting peace”.

The plan to “create” public opinion began in 1913 as a propaganda factory centered at Wellington House in London. Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary at the time, installed Lord Northcliffe (Britain’s most influential newspaper magnate) as its director. Lord Northcliffe’s position was over sighted by Lord Rothmere on behalf of the British Crown. The operational staff of Wellington House consisted of Lord Northcliffe, Arnold Toynbee (future director of studies at the Royal Institute of International Affairs), and the Americans, Walter Lippmann and Edward Bernays (nephew to Sigmund Freud).

Funding was initially provided by the Royal family, but soon to include the Rothschilds (related to Lord Northcliffe by marriage) and the Rockefellers. Wellington House would grow into the Tavistock Institute in 1921 after the propaganda “victories” of the First World War and the Federal Reserve banking system (created in 1913) had been secured.

The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations Shaping the Moral, Spiritual, Cultural, Political and Economic Decline of The United States of America

FORWARD.

The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations was unknown to the people of the United States before Dr. Coleman exposed its existence in his monograph, The Tavistock Institute of Human Relations: Britain’s Control of the United States. Up to that time, Tavistock had successfully retained its secretive role in shaping the affairs of the United States, its government and its people since its early beginning in London, in 1913 at Wellington House.

Since Dr. Coleman’s original article exposing this ultra-secret organization, others have come forward with claims of authorship, which they were unable to substantiate.

Tavistock began as a propaganda creating and disseminating organization centered at Wellington House, which was where the original organization was put together with intent of shaping a propaganda outlet that would break down the stiff public resistance being encountered to the looming war between Britain and Germany.

The project was given to Lords Rothmere and Northcliffe and their mandate was to produce an organization capable of manipulating public opinion and directing that manufactured opinion down the desired pathway to support for a declaration of war by Great Britain against Germany.

Funding was provided by the British royal family, and later by the Rothschilds to whom Lord Northcliffe was related through marriage. Arnold Toynbee was selected as Director of Future Studies. Two Americans, Walter Lippmann and Edward Bernays were appointed to handle the manipulation of American public opinion in preparation for the entry of the United States into WWI, and to brief and direct President Woodrow Wilson.

From a somewhat crude beginning at Wellington House grew an organization that was to shape the destiny of Germany, Britain and more especially the United States--in such a manner that it became a highly sophisticated organization to manipulate and create public opinion, what is commonly termed, “mass brainwashing”.

During the course of its evolvment, Tavistock expanded in size and ambition when in 1937 a decision was made to use the German author Oswald Spengler’s monumental work, Untergang des Abendlandes (The Decline of Western Civilization), as a model.

Previously, Wellington House board members Rothmere, Northcliffe, Lippmann, and Bernays had read and proposed as a guide the writings of Correa Moylan Walsh, in particular, the book The Climax of Civilization (1917) as corresponding closely to conditions that had to be created before a New World Order in a One World Government could be ushered in.

In this endeavor the members of the board consulted with the British royal family and obtained the approval of the “Olympians” (the inner core of the Committee of 300) to formulate a strategy. Funding was provided by the monarchy, the Rothschilds, the Milner Group and the Rockefeller family trusts.

In 1936, Spengler’s monumental work had come to the attention of what had become the Tavistock Institute. In preparation for changing and reshaping public opinion for the second time in less than twelve years, by unanimous consent of the board, Spengler’s massive book was adopted as the blueprint for a new working model to bring about the decline and fall of Western civilization necessary to create and establish a New World Order inside a One World Government.

Spengler held it bound to happen that alien elements would be introduced into Western civilization in increasing numbers, and that the West would fail at that time to expel the aliens, thereby sealing its fate, a society, whose inward beliefs and sound convictions would become at variance with its outward profession and thus Western civilization would fall by the wayside in the manner of the ancient civilizations of Greece and Rome.

Tavistock thinking was that Spengler had indoctrinated Western civilization to believe that it would err on the side of Roman civilization, and expel the aliens. The genetic loss that has fallen upon Europe—and especially on Scandinavia, England, Germany, France—the Anglo-Saxon, Nordic Alpine Germanic races) that began just before the Second World War is already so great as to be beyond expectations, and continues at an alarming pace under the skilled guidance of the Tavistock managers.

What was a very rare instance became a common occurrence, a black man married to a white woman or vice-versa.

The two World Wars cost the German nation almost one quarter of its population. Most of the intellectual energies of the German nation were diverted into war channels in defense of the Fatherland at the expense of science, arts, literature, music and the cultural, spiritual and moral advancement of the nation. The same could be said of the British nation. The blaze kindled by the British under the direction of Tavistock set all of Europe on fire, and did incalculable damage according to the Tavistock blueprint that matched Spengler’s predictions.

Classical and Western are the only two civilizations that could bring a modern renaissance to the world. They had flourished and progressed just as long as these civilizations remained under the control of the Anglo-Saxon Nordic Alpine, Germanic races.

The unsurpassed beauty of their literature, art, their classics, spiritual and moral advancement of the female sex with a very large corresponding degree of protection, was what distinguished Western and Classic civilizations from others.

It was this bastion that Spengler saw coming under increasing attack and the thinking at Tavistock ran on parallel tracks, but with a totally different goal. Tavistock saw this civilization as stumbling block to ushering a New World Order, as did the emphasis on protection and elevation of the female sex to a place of high respect and honor.

Thus the whole thrust of Tavistock was to “democratize” the West by an attack on womanhood, and the racial, moral, spiritual and religious foundation upon which Western civilization rested.

As Spengler suggested, the Greeks and Romans were devoted to the social, religious, moral and spiritual advancement and the preservation of womanhood and they were successful for just as long as they were in control and could arrange matters so that government was carried out by a limited number of responsible citizens supported by the general populace below them, all being of the same pure unadulterated race. The planners at Tavistock saw that the way to upset the balance of Western civilization was to force unwelcome changes in the race by removing control from the deserving to the undeserving in the manner of ancient Roman leaders who were supplanted by their former slaves and aliens, whom they had permitted to come and dwell among them.

Tavistock, by 1937, had come a long way from its Wellington House beginnings and the successful propaganda campaign that had turned the British public from being strongly anti-war in 1913 to willing participants through the arts of manipulation with the willing cooperation of news communications media.

The technique was carried across the Atlantic in 1916 to manipulate the American people to support of the war in Europe. In spite of the fact that the vast majority, including at least 50 U.S. Senators were adamantly opposed to the U.S. getting dragged into what they perceived was essentially a quarrel between Britain and France on the one hand, and Germany on the other, largely over trade and economics, the conspirators were undeterred. At that point Wellington House introduced the word, “Isolationists” as a derogatory description of those Americans who opposed U.S. participation in the war. The use of such words and phrases has proliferated under the expert brainwashing of the Social sciences scientists at Tavistock. Terms like “regime change”, “collateral damage” became almost new English language.

With the Tavistock plan modified to suit American conditions, Bernays and Lippmann led President Woodrow Wilson to set up the very first Tavistock methodology techniques for polling (manufacturing) so-called public opinion created by Tavistock propaganda. They also taught Wilson to set up a secret body of “managers” to run the war effort and a body of “advisors” to assist the President in his decision-making. The Creel Commission was the first such body of opinion-makers set up in the United States.

Woodrow Wilson was the first American president to publicly proclaim himself in favor of a Socialist New World Order inside a Socialist One World Government. His remarkable acceptance of the New World Order is found in his book The New Freedom.

We say “his” book, but actually, it was written by Socialist William B. Hayle. Wilson denounced capitalism. “It is contrary to the common man and it has brought stagnation to our economy,” Wilson wrote.

Yet, at the time, the United States economy was enjoying prosperity and industrial expansion as it had never experienced before in its history:

“We stand in the presence of a revolution—not a bloody revolution; America is not given to spilling blood—but a silent revolution, whereby America will insist upon recovering to practice those ideals which she has always professed, upon securing a government devoted to the general and not the special interests. We are upon the threshold of a time when the systematic life of the country will be sustained or at least supplemented at every point by government activity. And now we have to determine what kind of a government activity it shall be; whether, in the first place, it shall be directed from government itself, or whether it shall be indirect, through instrumentalities which have already constituted themselves and which stand ready to supersede government.”

The United States, harried, hounded, pushed and shoved is headed on a fast track to the New World Order, propelled along by the Radical Republicans of the War Party who have been taken over by the scientists at the Tavistock Institute for Human Relations.

Just recently I was asked by a subscriber “where do we find the Tavistock Institute?” My response was: “Look around the U.S. Senate, the House of Representatives, the White House, the State Department, the Defense Department, Wall Street, Fox T.V. (Faux T.V.) and you will see their change agents in every one of these places.”

President Wilson was the first U.S. president to “manage” the war through a civilian committee guided and directed by the Bernays and Lippmann from Wellington House, to which we have already made mention.

The resounding success of Wellington House and its enormous influence on the course of American history began before that in 1913. Wilson had spent almost a year tearing down the protective trade tariffs that had defended the American domestic markets from being overwhelmed by “Free Trade”, essentially the practice of allowing cheap British goods made with cheap labor in India to flood the American market. On October 12, 1913 Wilson signed the bill that was the beginning of the end of the unique American middle class, long the target of the Fabian Socialists. The bill was described as a measure to “adjust tariffs”, but it would have been accurate to describe it as a bill to “destroy tariffs”.

Such was the hidden power of Wellington House that the vast majority of the American people accepted this lie, not knowing or realizing that it was a death knell for American commerce that would lead to NAFTA, GATT and the World Trade Organization (WTO). Even more astonishing was the acceptance of the Federal Income Tax Act that was passed on September 5, 1913, to replace trade tariffs as the source of revenue for the Federal Government. Income Tax is a Marxist doctrine not found in the U.S. Constitution anymore than the Federal Reserve Bank is found in the Constitution. Wilson called his twin blows against the Constitution, “a fight for the people, and for free business”, and said he was proud to have taken “part in the completion of a great piece of business...” The Federal Reserve Act, explained by Wilson as “reconstructing the Nation’s banking and currency system” was rushed through on a flood-tide of propaganda emanating from Wellington House, just in time for the hostilities that began the horror of WWI.

Most historians are agreed that without passage of the Federal Reserve Bank Act, Lord Grey would not have been able to start that terrible conflagration.

The deceptive language of the Federal Reserve Act was under the guidance of Bernays and Lippman who set up a “National Citizen’s League” with the notorious Samuel Untermyer as its chairman, to promote the Federal Reserve Bank, that secured control of the people’s money and currency and transferred it to a private monopoly without the victim’s consent.

One of the most interesting pieces of history surrounding the imposition of the foreign financial slavery measure was that before it was sent to Wilson for his signature, a copy was given to the sinister Colonel Edward Mandel House as the representative of Wellington House and the British oligarchy represented by the banker, J.P. Morgan.

As to the American people, in whose name the disastrous measure was instituted, they had not the faintest idea how they had been connived, cheated, lied to and utterly deceived. An instrument of slavery was fastened around their necks without the victims ever becoming aware of it.

Wellington House methodology was at its height when Wilson was coached in how to persuade Congress to declare war on Germany, although he had won election on the solemn promise to keep America out of the war then raging in Europe, a great triumph for the new art of public opinion making. It was just that—the poll questions were shaded in such a way that the answers reflected the opinions of the public; not their understanding of the questions, nor their understanding of the processes of political science. [EJ: And so it goes today. But a few are awakening so there is hope.]

All About Chelation

by Dr. Julian Whitaker
27 Oct 2009

(NaturalNews) Abundant, durable, malleable, resistant to corrosion: No wonder lead has been such a popular metal throughout human history. Ancient Romans found a multitude of uses for it, from lining water pipes and drinking vessels to sweetening wine. What they didn’t realize were the detrimental health effects of this metal. It is now believed that lead poisoning was responsible for the bizarre behavior, mental incompetence, gout, stillbirths, and sterility that afflicted the Roman aristocracy—and quite possibly contributed to the decline of the Roman Empire.

Fast forward to 1921, when General Motors engineer Thomas Midgley, Jr., came up with another use for lead. As a gasoline additive, it reduced engine knock and improved performance. Of course, it was known to be toxic. Thomas Midgley himself was plagued with a “mysterious illness” while experimenting with it and, in 1924, 15 refinery workers died and 300 more became severely psychotic as a result of working with leaded gasoline.

But that didn’t matter. Thanks to corporate greed and government complicity, lead’s well-documented adverse effects were ignored, and for more than 60 years this potent toxin spewed into our environment. Leaded gas was finally phased out in 1986, and air levels of lead dropped dramatically. But even today, 20 years later, 7 million tons of lead remains in our soil, water, air—and bodies.

Bones Bear the Burden of Lead

More than 90 percent of your body’s total burden of lead exists in your skeleton. And for those of us who grew up in the days when lead was also in paint, pipes, water tanks, cans, and a plethora of other consumer products, that’s a lot of lead. In fact, we harbor a whopping 650 times more of this heavy metal in our bones than people did 100 years ago.

Lead is a neurotoxin that causes mental retardation and developmental delays in children and a multitude of cognitive problems in people of all ages. It also damages the endothelial cells lining the arteries and curbs production of nitric oxide, impairing circulation, raising blood pressure, and increasing risk of cardiovascular disease, kidney dysfunction, cancer, and premature death.

If lead would stay put in the bones, it might not be such a problem- but it doesn’t. Along with other minerals, lead is released into the bloodstream and transported to tissues throughout the body. Generally, this release is slow, gradual, and unnoticed. But there are times when it picks up speed. During pregnancy, when extra calcium is needed for fetal bone development, blood lead levels rise, increasing risk of hypertension for women with high levels, and often causing low birth weight and physical and mental developmental delays for their children.

Lead is also mobilized during mid-life and old age. Women are especially vulnerable after menopause, when bone loss increases. It is estimated that blood lead levels go up 30 percent during the five years after menopause! Men also lose bone mass as they age, and the resultant increase in blood lead levels negatively affects them as well.

Chelate the Lead Out

As you can see, we all need to take steps to get the lead out, and the fastest way to do this is to undergo a course of intravenous (IV) EDTA chelation. EDTA is a synthetic amino acid that forms a tight chemical bond with lead and other minerals and carries them out of the body in the urine.

EDTA chelation has been the number one FDA-approved therapy for lead poisoning since 1948. After World War II, sailors suffering with lead toxicity acquired while painting battleships and docks with lead-based paint were treated with EDTA chelation, and their results were remarkable. Not only did these men have the expected restoration of memory, energy, vision, and hearing, but those who also had heart disease experienced unexpected improvements in angina and circulation.

That’s how the broad benefits of chelation were serendipitously discovered. Astute physicians took heed and began using chelation for patients with cardiovascular disease and circulatory problems and, for a decade or so, its popularity mushroomed. Then the politics and economics of modern medicine intervened.

To make a long story short, this relatively inexpensive, office-based therapy had no chance against the Goliaths of cardiology (surgery and drugs). Chelation became embroiled in controversy, where it remains to this day. But a few thousand physicians refused to give up on it. I’ve been using EDTA chelation in my clinic for about 20 years, and I’ve seen it eliminate angina, improve exercise tolerance, lower blood pressure, increase circulation, and save limbs on the verge of amputation. The following story, from subscriber William Tessier from Cotuit, MA, is a perfect example.

“Chelation Saved My Life”

“Fourteen years ago, my doctor told me I needed angioplasty, and if I didn’t have it, I wouldn’t live more than two years. Something told me that I should not do it, so I lived with angina and blocked arteries, along with asthma, for the next 12 years. I was overweight, could not walk any distance without getting out of breath, and regularly experienced uncomfortable chest pain. I was taking 11 different drugs for all of my health problems.”

“Through those years I had to care for a very sick wife who passed away over five years ago. I met a friend three years ago whom I had not seen for quite some time. She told me about vitamins, nutrition, and chelation therapy, which she learned about from your newsletter.”

“After undergoing chelation treatment, exercising, and eating a low-fat diet, I am a new person. People cannot get over the change in me; some don’t recognize me at all. I lost 80 pounds, my asthma is now a thing of the past, and my arteries are fine. I can walk greater distances and spend nearly an hour a day on a treadmill and other exercise machines. I am also rid of all those killer drugs.”

“By the way, before I started chelation, I brought the information to my doctor, who had put me on all those drugs. He said, “You will be wasting your money.” He is now retired from his practice because of heart-related problems. Chelation saved my life. I am 78 years old and the friend that I met up with is now my lovely wife. I thank God that she receives Dr. Julian Whitaker’s Health & Healing newsletter.”

What About Oral Chelation?

I am often asked if oral chelation is the same as IV chelation. Yes and no. All chelating agents bind to minerals and move them out of the body. However, no one can convince me that oral chelators have the same effect as IV chelation.

This doesn't mean I don't recommend oral chelation. Although giant strides have been made in eliminating lead, it lingers in our environment. Even if you scrupulously avoid all known sources of exposure, you still have to contend with the lead that's stored in, and being released from, your bones. And lead is only one of many environmental toxins out there. Therefore, I support any and all efforts to chip away at the body's toxic burden.

What is the best oral chelator? Vitamin C is surprisingly good. Researchers from the University of California, San Francisco looked at blood levels of lead and ascorbic acid and found that children and adults with the highest levels of ascorbic acid were 89 and 65 percent, respectively, less likely to have elevated blood lead levels.

Other chelators are as close as your kitchen. Phytic acid (also called inositol hexaphosphate or IP6), which is found in the hulls of fiber-rich nuts, seeds, and grains, removes toxins from the intestinal tract. Garlic and cilantro are also natural chelators. In addition to eating more of these healthful foods, look for them in concentrated supplement form.

I've also been researching PectaSol Chelation Complex. It contains modified citrus pectin, a type of fiber derived from citrus pulp, along with natural chelators in seaweed called alginates, and has been shown to effectively remove a wide range of heavy metals. Other helpful supplements include N-acetylcysteine, zeolite, and, of course, EDTA.

Recommendations:

*Although I most often recommend IV chelation for patients with heart disease or circulation problems, I believe it provides benefits for most everyone over age 50.

*EDTA chelation is administered in a doctor's office via a 90-minute to three-hour IV infusion once or twice a week for a total of 25 to 30 treatments. To find a doctor in your area who administers this treatment, visit acam.org. For more information on receiving chelation therapy at Whitaker Wellness, call (800) 488-1500.

*Look for oral chelation products in your health food store and take as directed. PectaSol Chelation Complex can be ordered by calling (800) 308-5518.

Putin Orders Russian Nukes To “High Alert” As Israel Prepares For War

By: Sorcha Faal, and as reported to her
Western Subscribers
October 30, 2009

Grim reports are circulating in the Kremlin today stating that Prime Minister Putin has ordered Russia's Strategic Rocket Forces (RVSN RF) to put on “high alert” 17 Topol Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles after the warning issued by Lebanese Ambassador Noaf Salaam to the United Nations that Israel is preparing for an “imminent attack on his country” and which Moscow believes is intended by the West to be the “first salvo” fired in initiating Total Global War.

Alexander Khramchikhin, deputy director of the Institute for Political and Military Analysis, had previously warned Putin and President Medvedev about the United States planned invasion of Russia along with its NATO allies upon the outbreak of Total Global War from the numerous bases they have been rapidly building in Eastern Europe, and which Russian Military Analysts warned that the Motherland's Forces could not stop and forcing the Kremlin to adopt a new Military Doctrine allowing preemptive nuclear strikes by RVSN RF Forces, who hold the largest nuclear weapons stockpile in the World.

Medvedev, working in concert with Putin, also today rushed to the Federation Council his new law, previously unanimously adopted by the Duma, stating that “Russian troops can be used abroad to repel an attack on Russian military units or other troops deployed outside the country, to repel or prevent an armed attack on another state asking Russia for military assistance, to defend Russian citizens abroad from an armed attack, to combat sea piracy and to ensure safety of commercial shipping.”

Important to note in these latest “Great Game” moves, and as we had previously reported on in our report “Putin Given Shocking Report Saying Obama “Ousted” In Right-Wing US Coup”, the Kremlin further states in these latest reports that “in all likelihood” Chinese Military Forces will move to take Siberia upon the outbreak of Total Global War.

Aside from preparing the Motherland for Total Global War, these reports continue, Putin has ordered Russian Military and Diplomatic Forces to protect “at all costs” the Presidency of Barack Obama (currently under constant attacks by the fascist right-wing forces in his country aligned with their counterparts in Israel) and whom the Kremlin believes commands the “only power bloc” left able to prevent a Global catastrophe.

Towards Putin's order to protect Obama, the Kremlin has announced their willingness to give the American President a “foreign policy victory” by signing a new arms reduction treaty with the US prior to Obama's December 10th trip to Sweden to accept the Nobel Peace Award recently bestowed upon him and bolstering his power over those fascist rogue forces seeking to destroy him.

Russian Military Forces have also announced their plans to provide Obama, and those NATO Forces still loyal to him, with Russian Helicopters and special purpose weaponry to be used in their titanic struggle in Afghanistan, which has devolved into a war between the West's military might and the Central Intelligence Agencies (CIA) controlled warlords, al Qaeda and Taliban fighters intent upon protecting the vast wealth of the CIA's heretofore Global Drug Empire that when combined with their cocaine operations in South and Central America have reaped them an estimated $5 Trillion in the past decade alone.

Being lost to the American people about these critical events accelerating around our World, aside from their crucial lack of knowledge as to whom is really fighting for whom, is that by even the most optimistic estimates, the ravages of climate change has so decimated our Planet's ability to feed itself there remains “only months” before massive starvation begins.

Most critical on the list of our World's regions being decimated is Iraq where the drought in that Middle Eastern country is said now to be the worst since the “earliest days of civilization”. Expected next to fall to the ravages of climate change is India, who though being the World's second largest rice grower is now reporting it is going to have to start importing this vital grain for the first time in 21 years after its failed monsoon season, said to be the weakest since 1972, and catastrophic flooding in other regions have crippled its ability to feed itself.

So dire have the conditions grown in Asia, that new reports are now warning that this regions food security is now at risk, and with China having declared earlier this year that their catastrophic drought is now the worst in 50 years, the ominous 2004 secret report given by the Pentagon to then President Bush warning that “climate change will destroy us” is now coming true.

And to the most horrific statement issued by the Pentagon in this report that warns “disruption and conflict will be endemic features of life, once again, warfare will define human life” we must all take notice of for our greatest understanding of these times.

For being forgotten in this “new age” of Global economic collapse and chaos, by the vast majority of Westerners, is that economic crisis such as these have throughout history always been “paired” with great climate upheavals, such as the last “cycle in the wheel” during the 20th Century which saw the Great Depression (1929-1940) being paired with the Great American Dustbowl (1930-1940), the Great Chinese Famine (1929-1936), the Great Soviet Famine (1932-1933) and Ukraine Famine (1932-1933), and which cycles have always overturned what was and created New World Orders.

And this bears more than a passing mention due to an addendum to these reports, prepared for Putin by one of his most important advisors, the Russian billionaire Oleg Deripaska, who though banned from ever entering the United States was secreted by US FBI agents into New York, and where in a series of meetings with US banking giant Goldman Sachs and the now US government owned auto giant General Motors, he “confirmed” that the American banking, financial and political elite factions had “looted” nearly the entire wealth of the United States, and is continuing to do so, as they fully expect their Nation to collapse before the end of 2010 and have “positioned themselves” to be the rulers in the New World Order to come.

Being left out of this diabolical equation, however, are the American people themselves, who by the time they decide to awaken from their long drunken slumber will awaken into a World they are not nearly equipped enough to understand or comprehend, especially the horrors of mass death and catastrophes that will soon surround their every waking moment.

As to those of us who seek to awaken these peoples to the brutal realities which lie ahead of them? As always, we are met by scorn and ridicule. But in truth, what more can be expected of peoples such as these, who have forsaken the wisdom of their ancestors who left in these witless souls care what was once the Greatest Nation our World has ever seen, but in their rush for material riches and decadent perversions have squandered it all away.

To be scorned and ridiculed by peoples such as these there is no shame; it should be worn like a badge of honor.

A Nigerian's View of South Africa

The Guardian Newspaper
October 21, 2009

SIR: On Thursday October 1, 2009, the National Chairman of our great party Chief Bisi Akande, the Lagos State Chairman of the Party in Lagos, Chief Dele Ajomale, his wife; the representative of the Governor and my humble self left for South Africa to inaugurate the chapter of our party. Business finished on Saturday October 2 and 3, 2009 in both Pretoria and Johannesburg. We had Sunday October 4 to look around. It was my first visit to South Africa and what I saw stunned me.

Am I in Africa or Europe? Am I in America? Is this another Singapore? Could this be true? Where was Nigeria when South Africa was putting all these structures in place? If the white man did all these in South Africa why were the Nelson Mandelas of this world complaining? If South Africans got their independence on a platter of gold the way Nigeria got hers in 1960, would there have been all these structures I am seeing here today? Impossible! From what I saw on ground in South Africa, it looked as if all the companies and industries all over the world are physically present there. Ah! Nigeria has been left behind. South Africa is the potential and undisputable leader in Africa. Thanks to the white South Africans.

I came to the unhappy conclusion that the mosquitoes that drove the whites away from Nigeria in 1960 did a colossal and unmitigated damage to Nigerians. I again asked myself these questions: How many black Africans did the whites kill before surrendering power to them? How many Nigerians have been killed by Nigerian leaders since they took over power from the whites in 1960? Let us compare the figures. I am sure the supreme prize South Africans paid to have the South Africa I see today will be so infinitesimal compared with what our leaders have killed to remain in power in Nigeria.

What I am saying is that God should have allowed the whites to tarry for at least more 30 years in Nigeria and we would have been better for it. Mandela survived 27 years in prison because the white man was a better person. He could not have survived 10 years in prison in Nigeria.

My conclusion after seeing what I saw in South Africa is that the whites left Nigeria in a hurry, and that is why we are suffering today. Had the whites tarried in Nigeria, Nigeria would have been like South Africa today. I want the whites back in Nigeria!

Joe Igbokwe,

Lagos.
